CATALOGUE

Sourcing the best in designed goods from Japan for your home and office.

For 20 years now, Living and Dining has been your supplier of designed products from Japan and our story is simply the provision of beautiful items to enhance our local lifestyle. Our style is modern classic and most items in our range are destined to become pieces that are enjoyed and treasured for many years. We only select brands and products that we believe in and are happy to say that so many have won international design awards.

In this catalogue you will find both bright colours and neutral tones across the ranges to suit all your customers. Animals feature strongly with, of course, a high representation of cats that just seem to outsell all other animals. There are a lot of stationery items in here and the kitchen and dining items do so well too. We are excited about the new products and hope you love them as much as we do. The business of gift and homewares is demanding yet rewarding and we truly appreciate all your support. We will do everything we can to help you and are always happy to even just chat.

Please enjoy our latest catalogue and feel free to contact us for any questions at all.

T-Lab

Each piece in this collectible range is individually hand-carved from the light Albizia wood then sanded to softness by artisans before being hand-finished in Japan. No two animals are exactly the same and the tactile smoothness and character of these charming animals make them irresistibly adorable. Although often used as a decorations for children's rooms, they are most suitable for ages 7+ and are also loved by adults who collect them. Start your own collection today!

A note on the wood used for these animals:

The wood used for the T-Lab range is the fast growing tropical tree Albizia to ensure eco-sustainability. To further support the environment, T-Lab also reforests plantations in order to re-pay the earth for its bounty.

Dogs

The wood of this series has been left closer to its natural form yet still shows great attention to detail. The simple design is highlighted with the painting on each dog and the attached tag shows its breed.

Pole Pole

The Pole Pole animals are all true to their actual natural state as they are studied and designed to be as close as possible to the animals as you would meet them in real life. They are all positive with uplifting faces and in some cases even smiles. The attention to detail is amazing and the tails are so cleverly added too. They feel almost soft to touch and are very light due to the wood that is used to produce this range.

Pair Set

Small Pole Pole animals are very difficult to create, as attention to detail must remain the same but on a much finer base. These pairs of animals featuring adult and child show this work to allow you a greater connection to your selected animals just as you would to a special jewel. The new Panda cub sits well with the Panda from the Pole Pole Animal series and is available separately only.

Chopsticks

We are a little behind schedule on this one as we have been asked to stock chopsticks for over 10 years now. As you know, we are very fussy with our selections and have finally found a brand we love.

Classy and refined, these are exactly our style and with the beautiful packaging they make a wonderful gift too. Designed to be easy to use, these chopsticks would look perfect in any situation from casual dining to dinner party settings. The packaging is made from paper to limit the use of plastics across their entire range and many of the chopsticks are made from bamboo to lessen the impact on the environment.

Classic Style Chopsticks

Made from bamboo, these chopsticks have a refined elegance that will add style to any table setting. They have been coloured in neutral tones to reflect the faint shadow cast by soft light and are pleasant to hold. The chopstick rest sold separately represents a delicate flower petal and is also gently coloured.

A note on all tongs by AUX

All the tongs made by AUX have the same spring action which is patented in Japan. Usually a spring is produced with only one press for tongs, however AUX perform 2 press directions – once horizontally and twice vertically which makes it both gentle to use and durable. Extensive testing of 100,000 opening and closing actions of the spring has been completed and the springs do not warp or change shape in any way. There is a certificate of durability available as evidence but most of all you can be sure that these tongs are all easy to use and will last in your kitchen. AUX have designed their range of tongs so that when they are laid flat the tips of the tongs are raised to allow your counter surface to remain as clean as possible.

Modern style now reflects nature more closely and a perfect example of this is shown in the range of pressed botanical specimens found in Toumei homeware items. Meaning transparent in Japanese, Toumei is a series of finely detailed photographic prints transferred to the underside of clear acrylic blocks with frosted tops. There are also gold-leaf designs that are traditional abstract Japanese representations of forms found in nature. As to be expected all items are superbly packaged and the sets come in their own wooden boxes.

Animal Pen

Hand-carved pens featuring birds and animals. The wood used for these pens is from Amorpha, colloquially known as Indigo Bush, which is harvested from sustainable plantations. Farmers make enclosures from this tree to prevent wild animals from destroying their farms and as soon as they are felled, more are planted. They also sell wood from felled trees on the open market to support their income further. It is a circular method to preserve both land and native animals which in turn ensures sustainable forest resources. Length: approx. 165mm
